MAR 30 2020

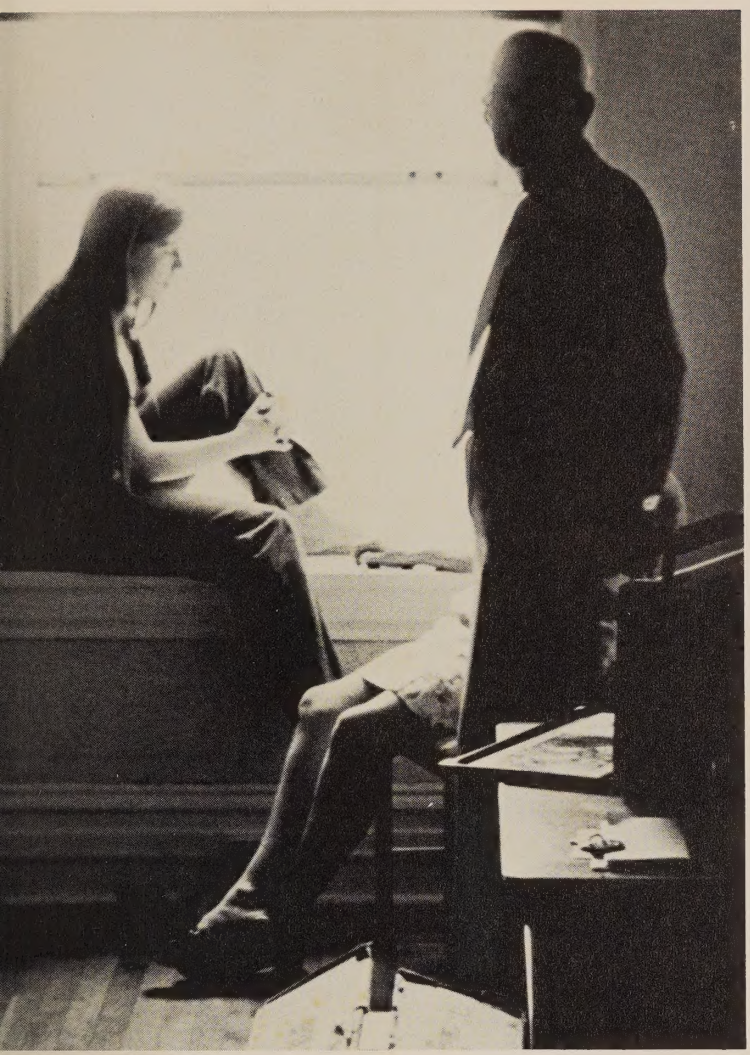

By plane, alone,
or in cars with friends,
We came

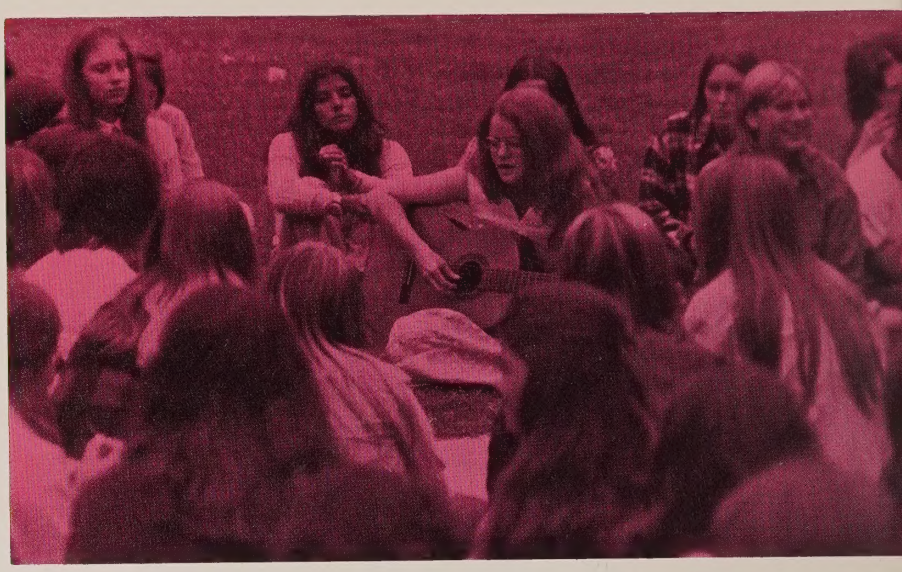

We came hoping and questioning . . .
We came believing and we came in anticipation of things to be

We came to become the living soul of Virginia Intermont and a little part of Bristol—in the dawning of what would soon become a unique and fascinating year

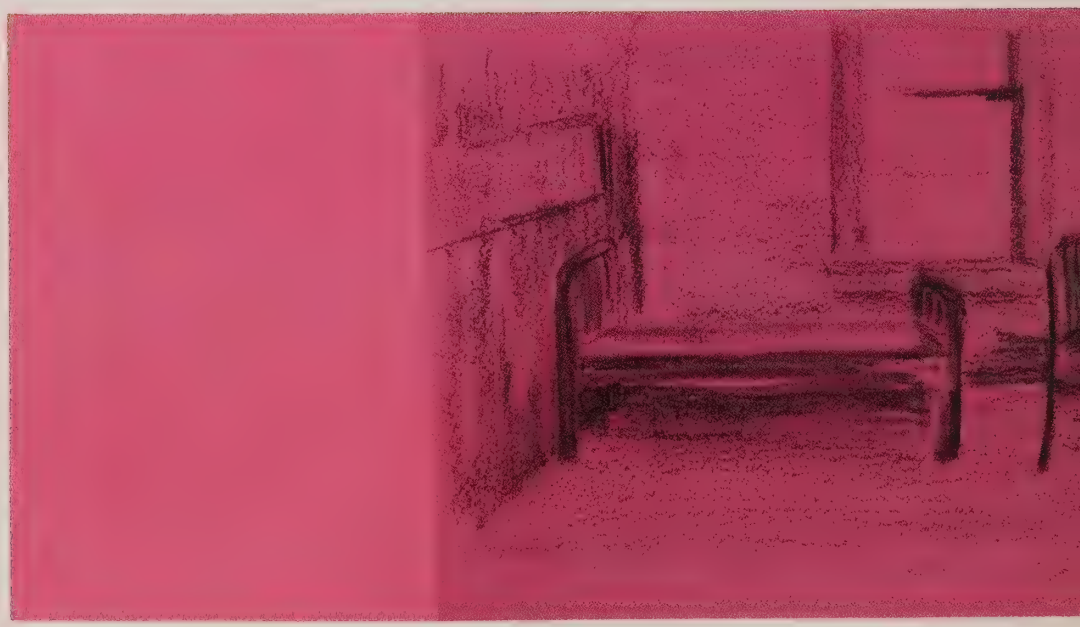

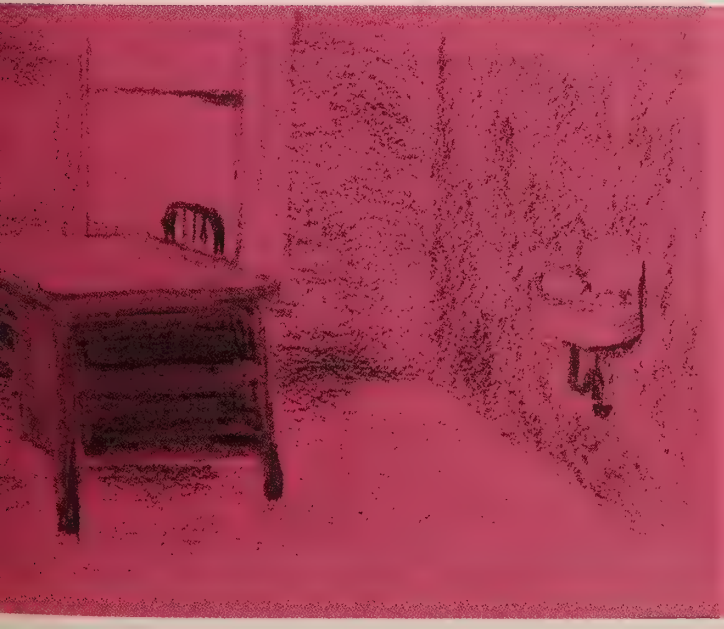

And after we arrive—a bed and a desk and a chair—a home for a year with new roommates and the special flavor of dorm life

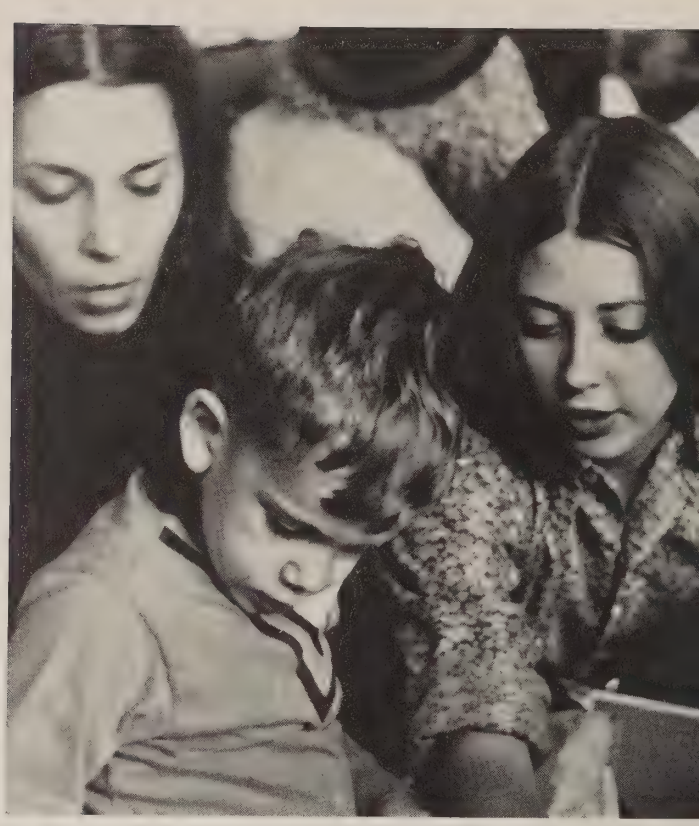

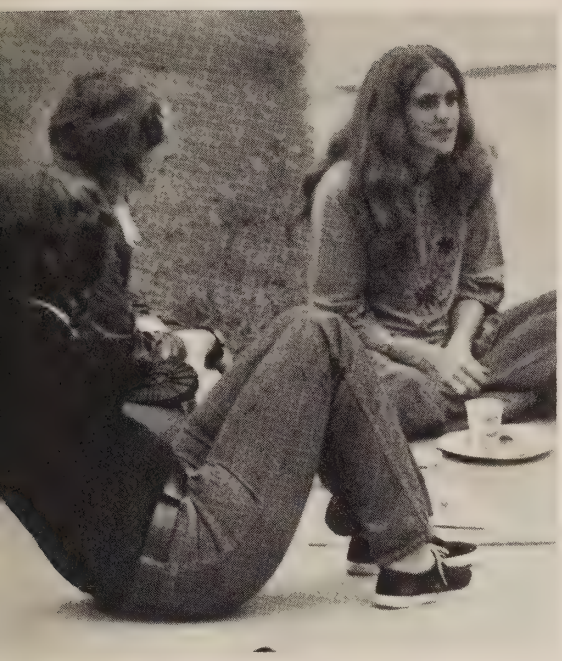

When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care
And nothing, nothing is going right
Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night

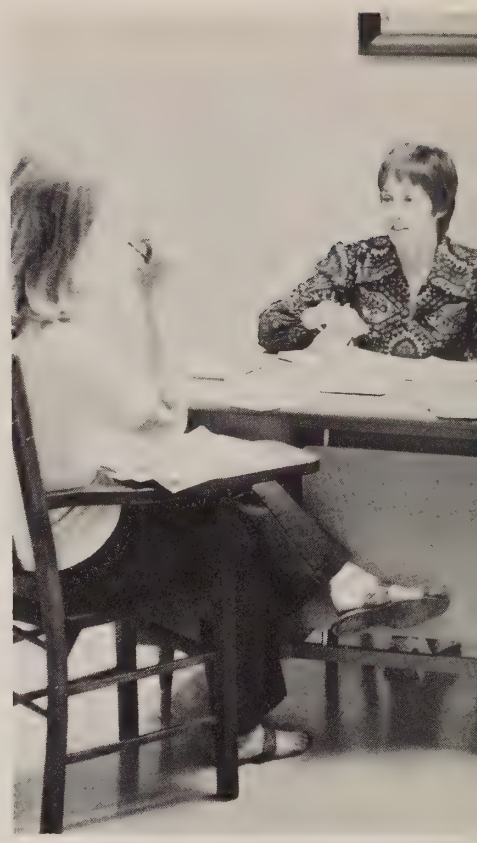

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am I'll come running to see you again
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there
You've got a friend

—Carole King

Don't stop now—you've only just begun. There are forms to fill out, and schedules to arrange. It's all very simple and oh, so confusing. So you cry a little and then laugh at yourself, beg the prof to squeeze you in the overloaded psychology class, and it's finally over. You are registered. You are enrolled, and, baby, you are officially in college.

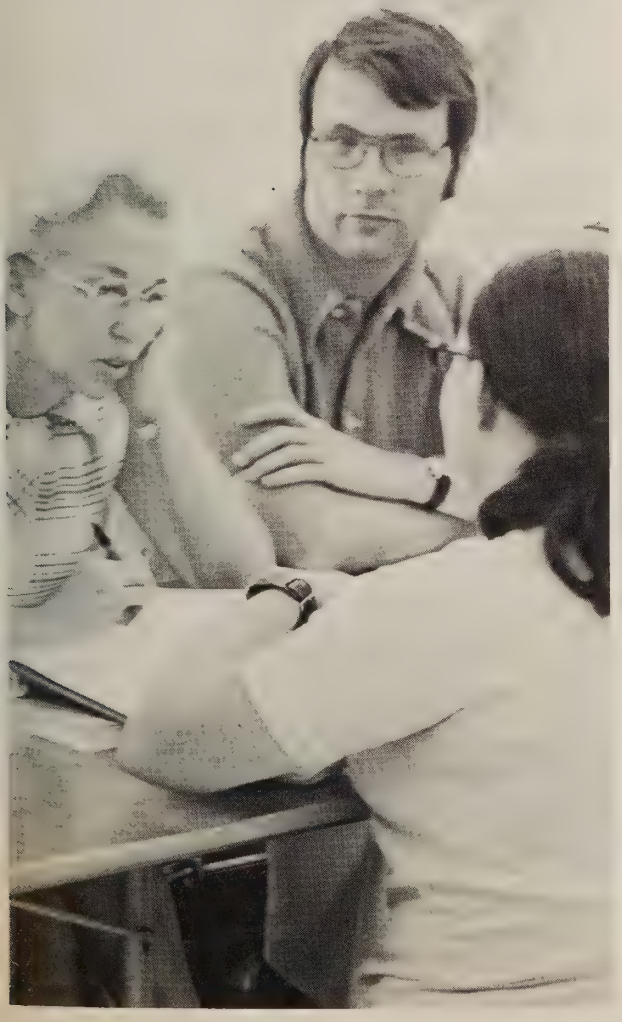

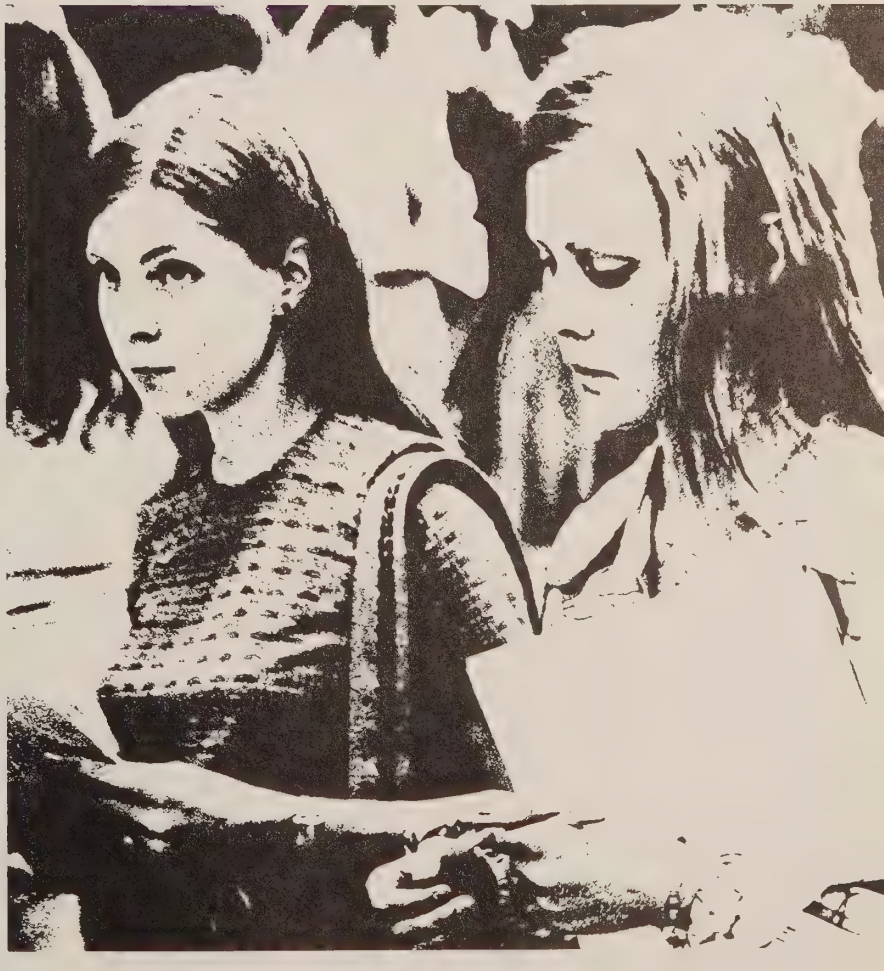

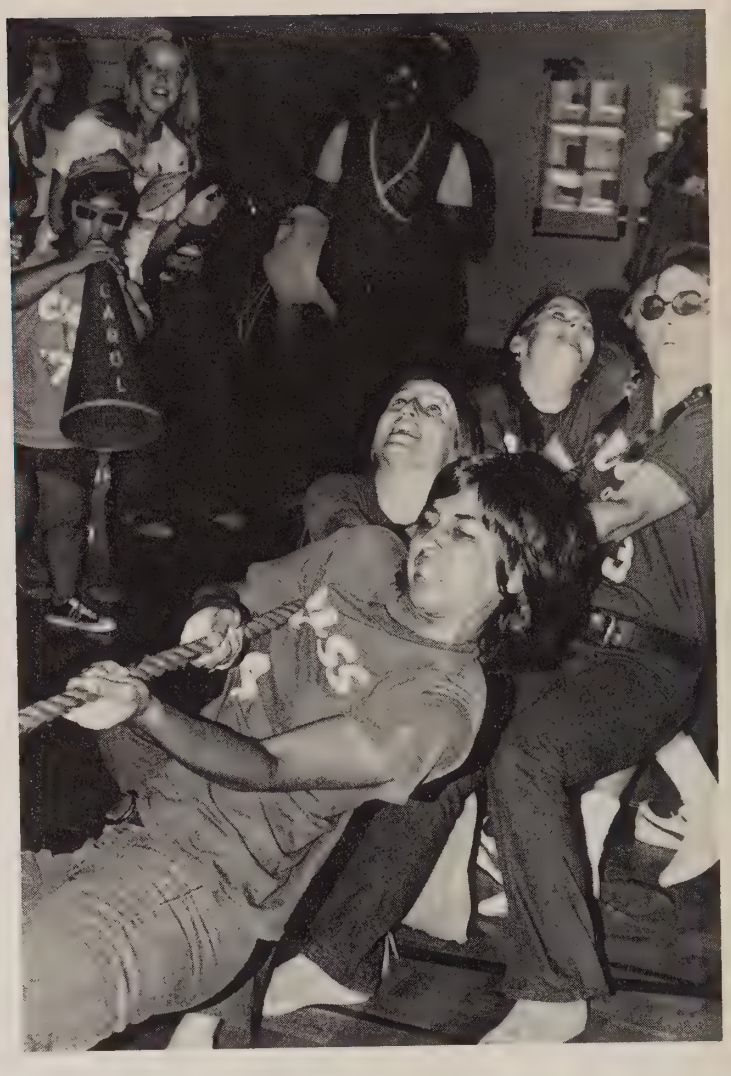

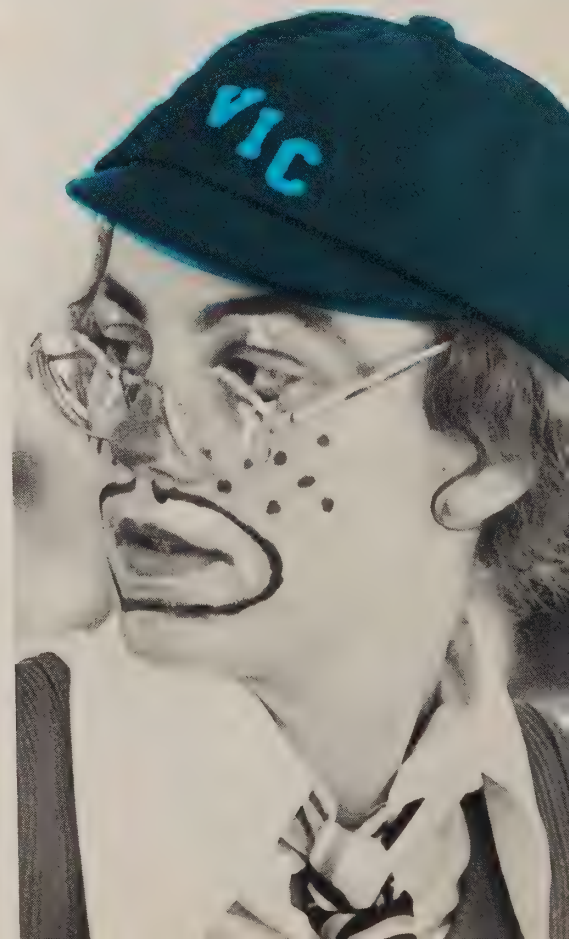

Will we ever know what we were destined to become? At least we are changing and we have taken some of the steps toward becoming—we are trying and we are experiencing

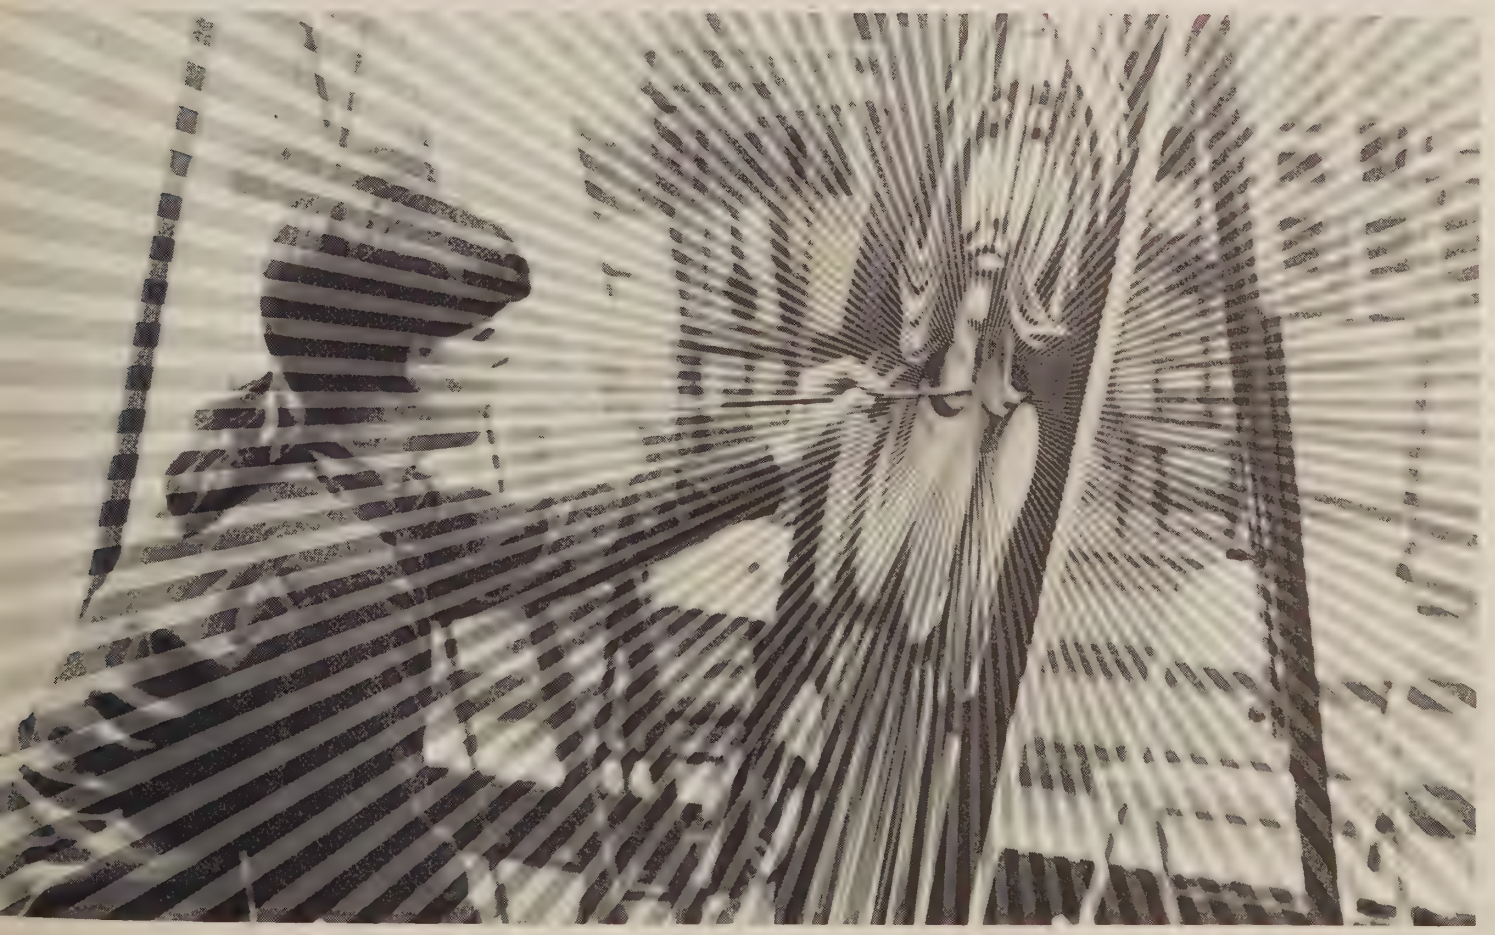

Guide us
Help us
Let us be
We want to become

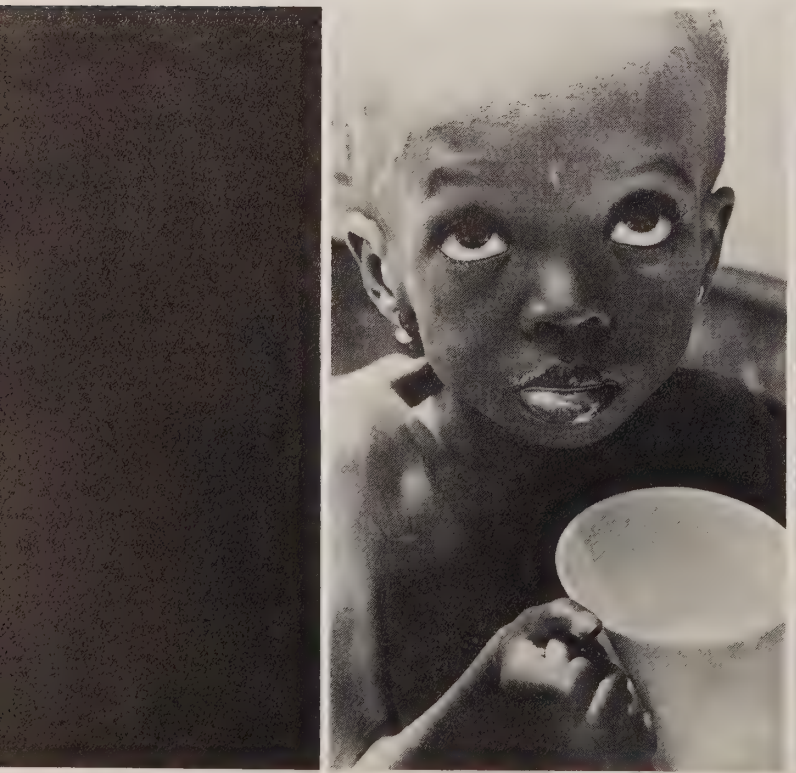

We become involved.
The world out there is real and we want to be part of it all. The year is alive with political controversy—people are searching for answers. People are hungry—there are problems which demand immediate attention, and we are sensitive to the pleading. We want to care—to reach out—to learn by experiencing. We need to be involved. We seek to define life and love and to learn to be at peace with ourselves and the world.

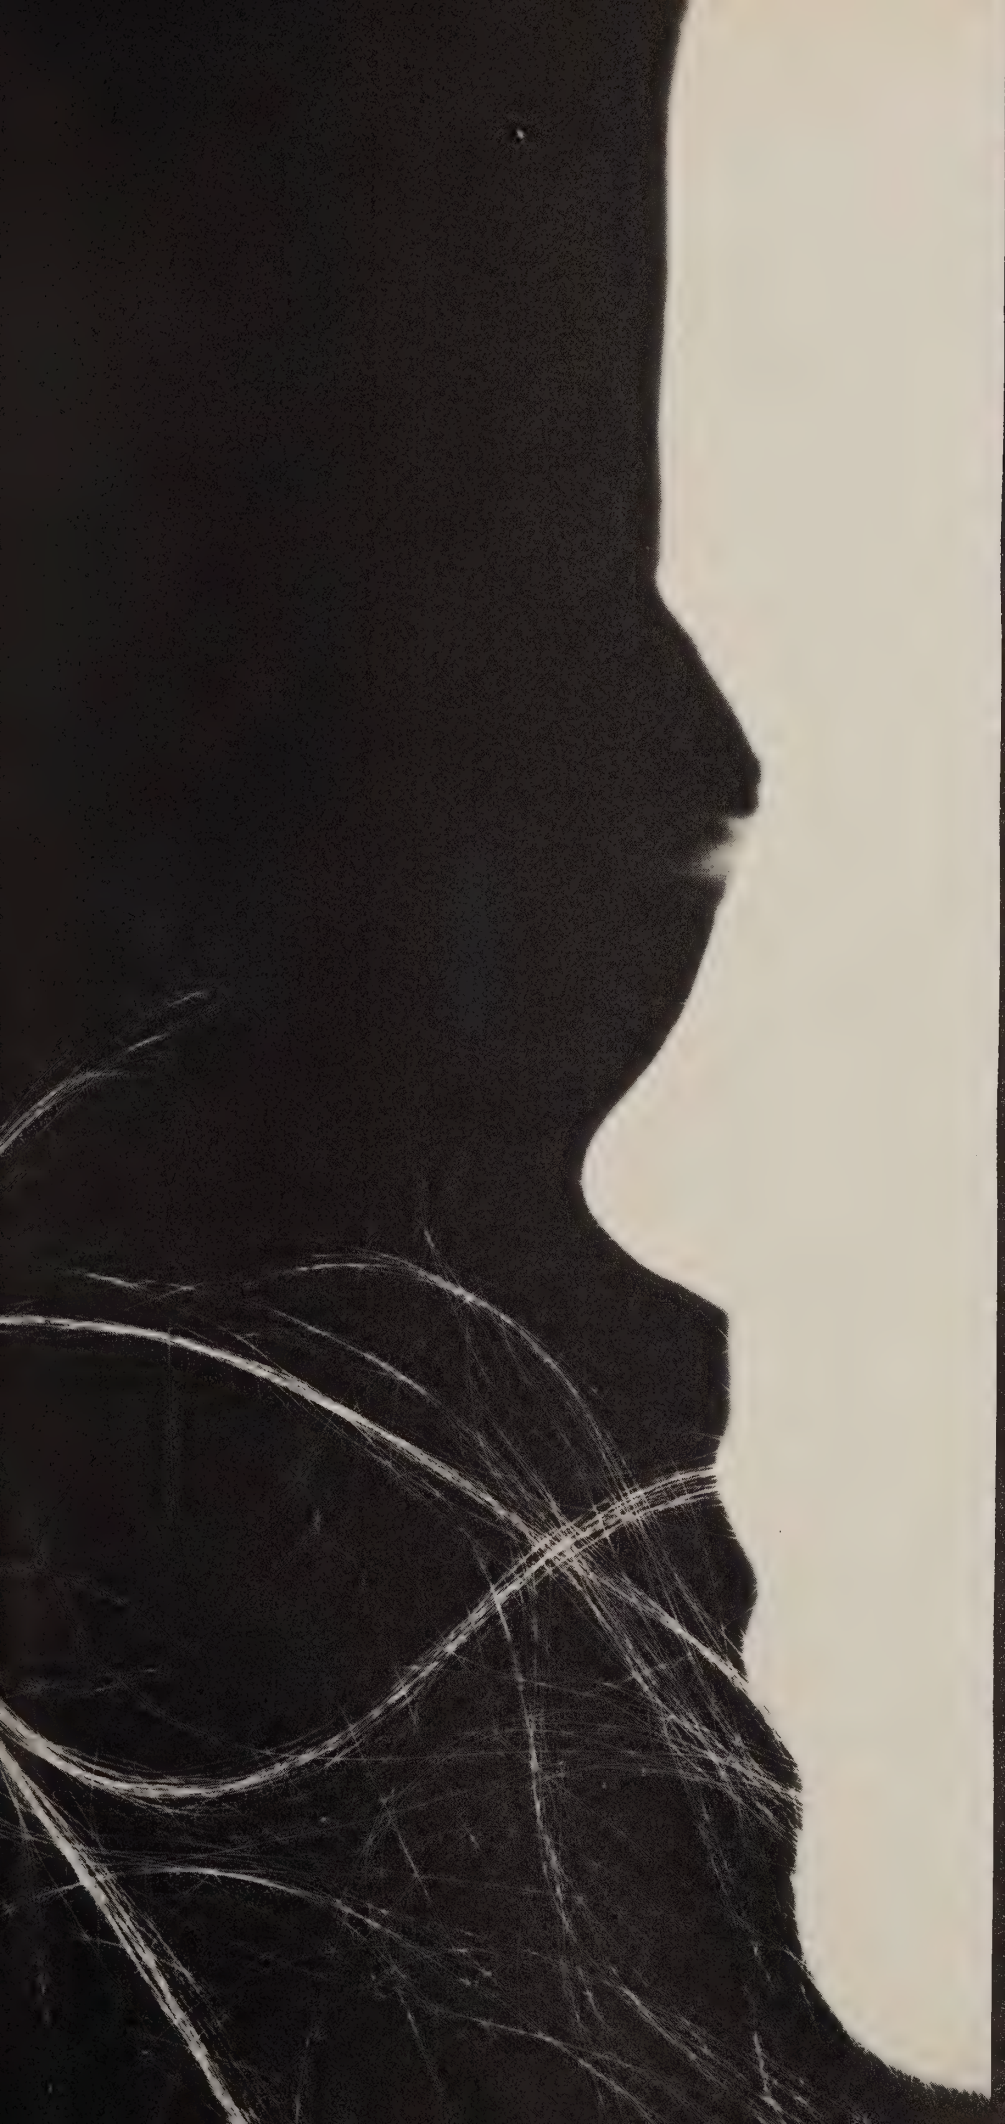

SENIORS

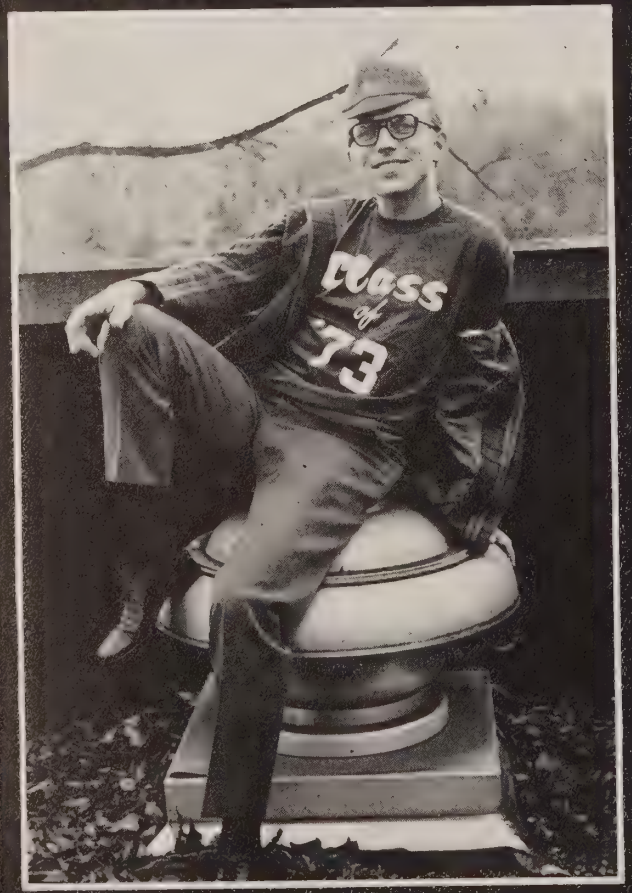

Editor: Barbara Detwiler

Officers Senior Class

Donna Hartley, SECRETARY; Margaret McAlevy, VICE-PRESIDENT; Jan School, TREASURER; Anne Boghi, PRESIDENT; Dan Emmel, CLASS SPONSOR.

. . . remember those sad faces as you watched your parents drive-away freshman year . . . standing in line for registration, signer of last name, first name, middle initial . . . wearing your beanie . . . being a dink . . . the joys of vacation . . . the sadness of leaving your friends . . . hard work . . . home work . . . slow work . . . no work . . . a time of thinking . . . talking . . . listening . . . seeing . . . being . . .

So . . . We the Seniors leave the halls of V.I.C. Never will we go through as a class again. As the tide goes out, so do we go out to business, to graduate school, to the service of our country.

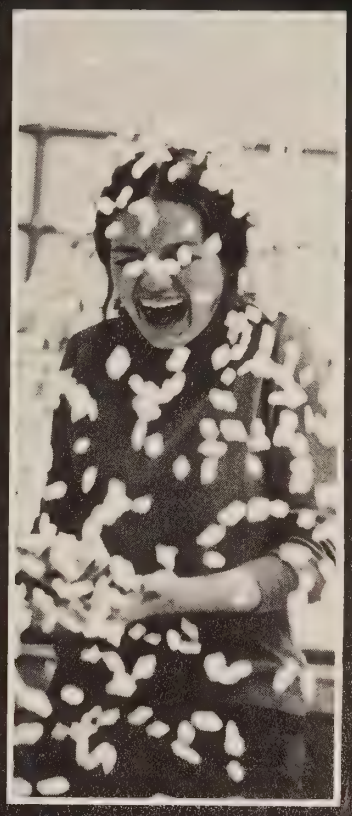

As the tide soon comes back, may we return, if only in thought to our Alma Mater as our day brings success—fruition of the training we received here.

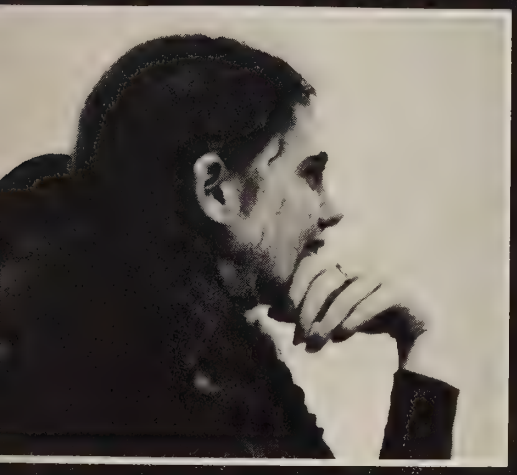

As our departure is colored by the setting sun of our college years, we know that morning will bring the rays of the rising sun which will usher in the golden days of a new chapter in our lives.

GLAMOUR MAGAZINE

Duffy Crawford

GLAMOUR Magazine each year, through its College Contest, selects ten outstanding girls who represent the prevalent moods found on today's college campuses. Representing Virginia Intermont this year is Duffy Crawford. Duffy has shown leadership through her active participation as editor of the CAULDRON, as Academics section editor of the INTERMONT, as a member of Cardinal Key, and as a fashion individualist.

ALUMNAE AWARD

Barbara Davis

Virginia Intermont's Alumnae Award is awarded each year to a student who is considered by her fellow students and an alumnae committee to be the best representative of the highest ideals of the college.

The 1973 recipient of the college's most prestigious honor is Barbara Davis, senior Education major from Parkersburg, West Virginia.

Barbara's character, leadership, and dedication are expressed through her service to the college. She has been Co-Editor of the 1973 INTERMONT, President of H^2O, Chairman of the SGA Elections Committee, and a member of the Student Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Her other honors include the Cardinal Key, Phi Theta Kappa, and Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities

Ten students were selected this year for inclusion in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. These juniors and seniors were chosen for their academic excellence, leadership abilities, and work in community activities.

Soon the days which we once called "tomorrow" become "yesterday" and we wonder at the swiftness which time is capable of

Trophy
TAP ROOM

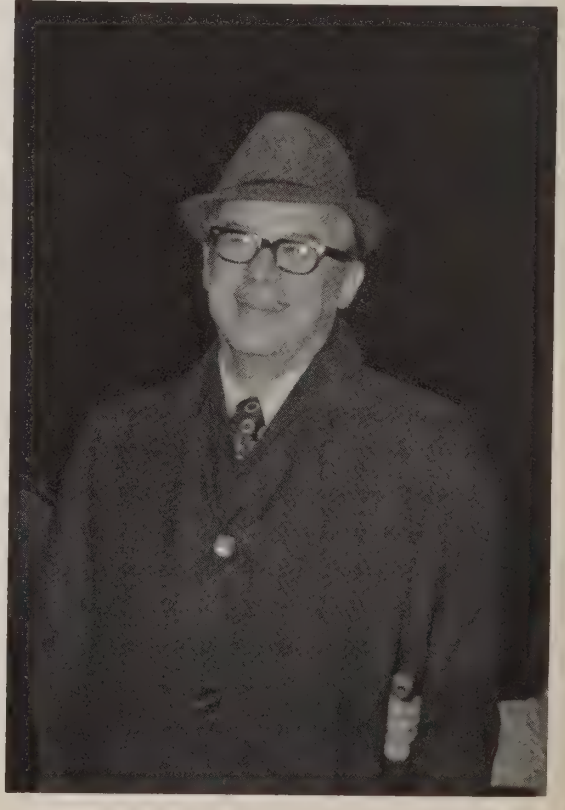

Captured on these pages are some of the good times—the smiles, the laughter, the warmth of a friendship to remember and cherish

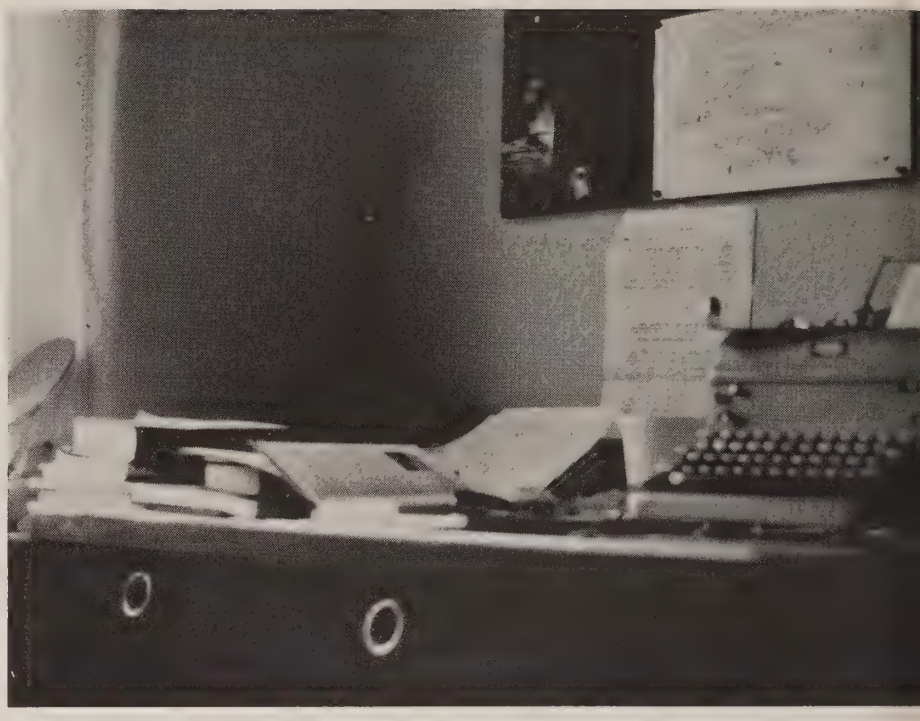

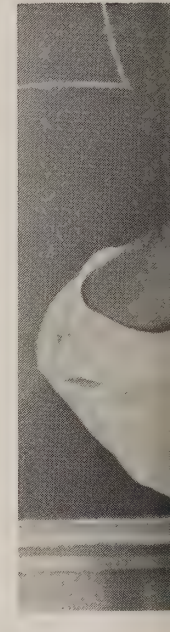

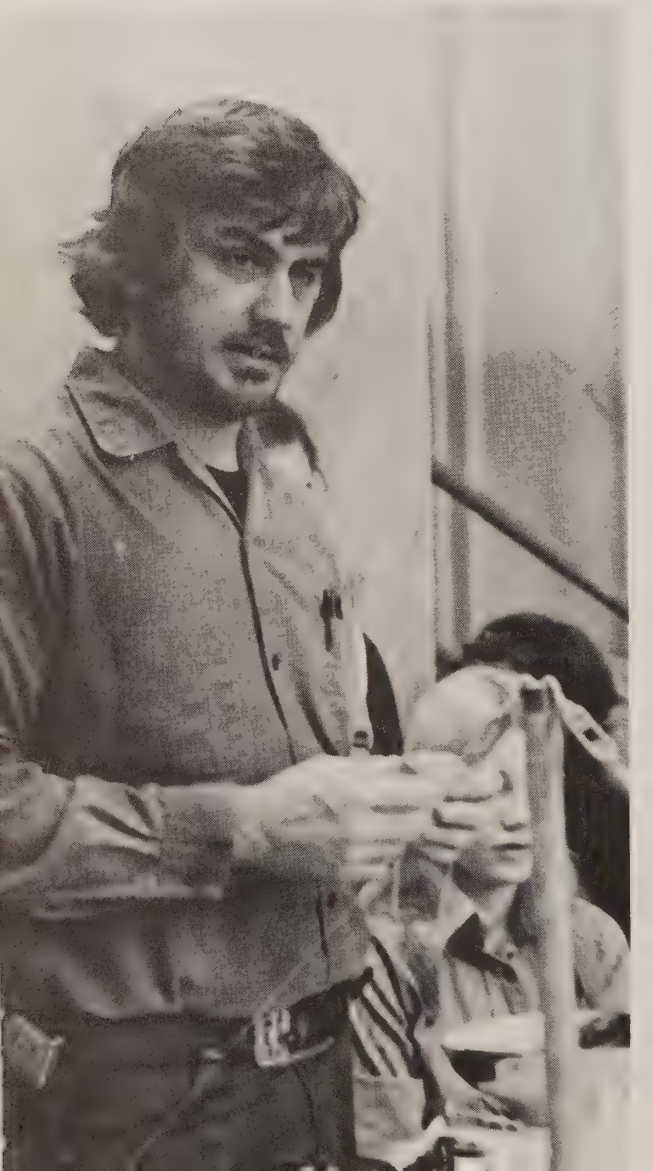

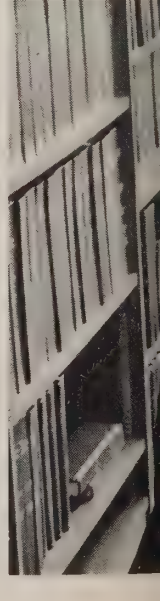

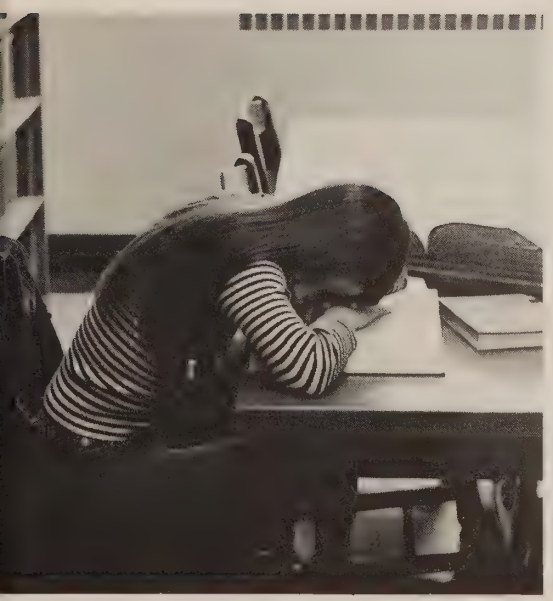

And there is so much to remember—days filled with classes, quiet study, searching questions; rainy days and barefoot games, sunshiny days of sharing nature's lessons

People who become such an intricate part of our very being for the short while we are together, Helping us to become what we are

the real thing
MEN

Looking back we want to smile because it was real and it is now because in our own small way we have cared and we have shared

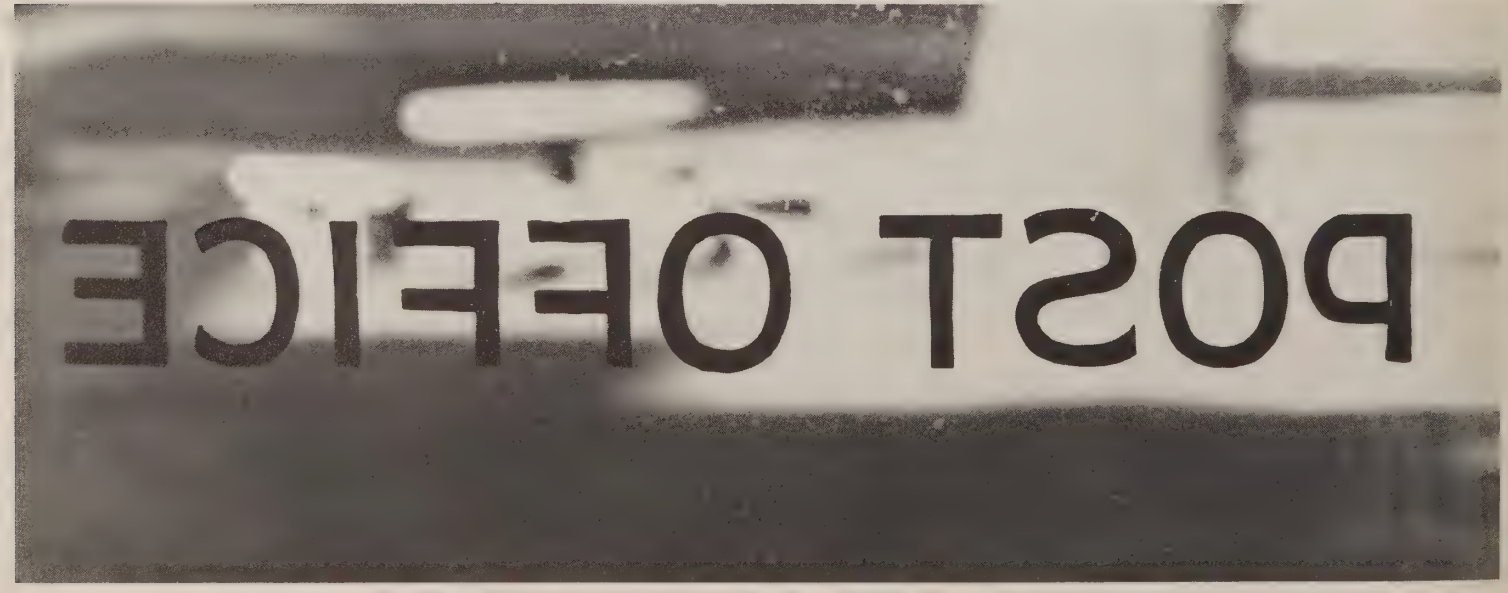

we are still growing

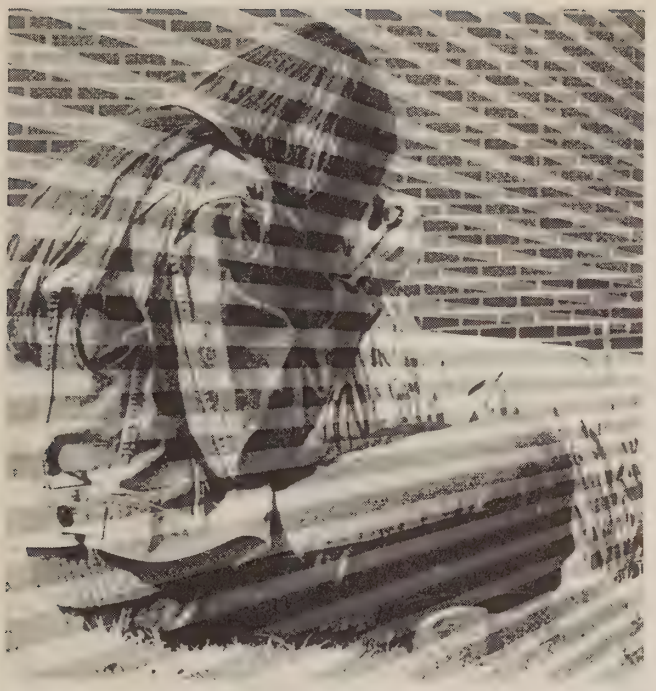

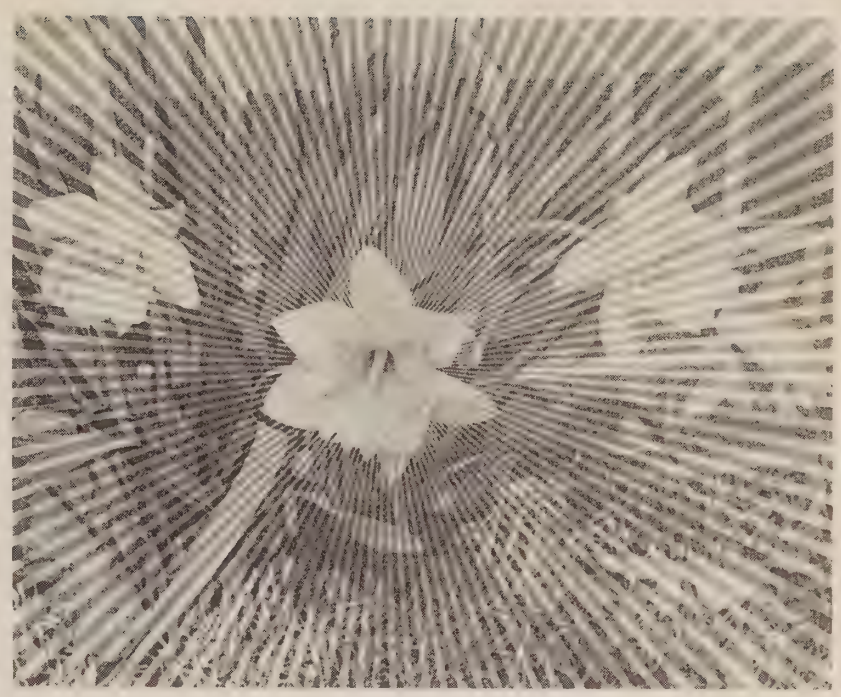

For this year together will never exist again except in that special phenomenal place called the memory

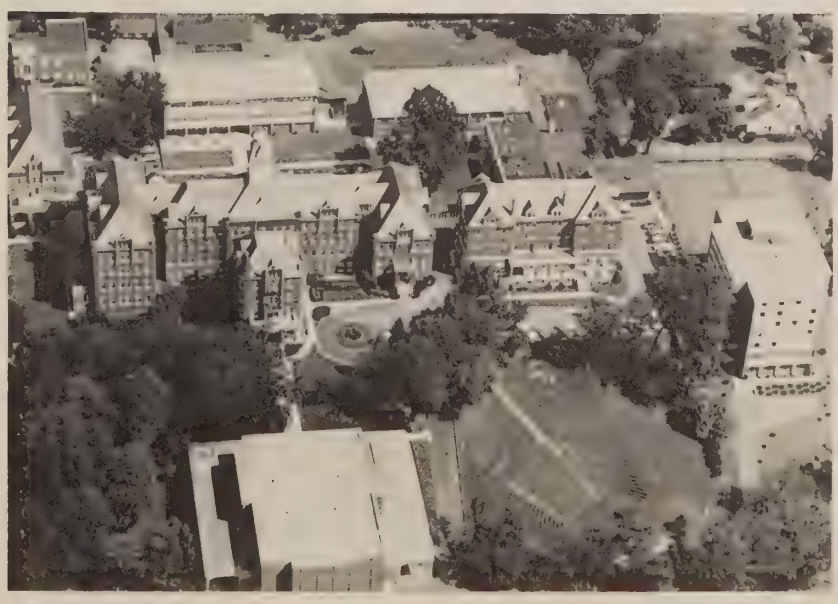

If we have preserved some of those memories on these pages then our purpose has been fulfilled. And this is to say that all-in-all it (72-73) was a good year—Meaningful because we experienced it together
and "together" is what we all strive for because "alone" is only a long, lonely road
